DEMOCRATIC HUMBUG IS THE TARIFF PLANK

FREE-TRADERS UNDERTAKE TO DODGE SQUARE ISSUE ON PROTECTION.

In the Tariff plank which went from the White House to St. Louis there was a declaration for an investigation of changing economic conditions at home and abroad by a Tariff commission, whose findings should be presented to Congress for action looking to an antidumping law which "would keep the Tariff rates on a fairly competitive basis in times of surplus production abroad."

This meant nothing less than a Protective Tariff, for a Protective Tariff aims to do and does that very thing of maintaining in the American market a competitive basis between a home article produced at high labor costs and a foreign article produced at pauper labor costs.

But when Mr. Wilson's competitive Tariff plank was shown in St. Louis such a shout of derision went up from the Republican press and such a cry of shame from the honest Democratic press, which saw and acknowledged the humbug of such a subterfuge, that the "competitive" stuff was stricken out of the Tariff plank as it finally appeared.

But in its present form it is a humbug plank, just the same. Word for word, it goes along with the plank first sent from the White House to St. Louis until it comes down to what the Tariff commission is going to do, and then it muddles up the stream with these words:

"In order to ascertain just what those (economic) changes may be, the Democratic Congress is providing for a non-partisan Tariff Commission to make impartial and thorough study of every economic fact that they may throw light either upon our past or upon our future fiscal policy with regard to the imposition of taxes on imports or with regard to the changed and changing conditions under which our trade is carried on."

The only difference between this and the other is that the first was bold, brazen humbug and this is cowardly, sneaking humbug.

The first suggested Tariff changes as a "competitive" policy; this says Tariff changes as a "fiscal" policy. But they both mean that the Democratic party, whose existing Tariff measures prostrated American industries within six months after it went into operation and was wiping them out by the wholesale when the war came to save them—this means that the Democratic party, while intending to persist in its Free-Trade infatuation, is afraid to stand straight up in this election and face the Republican party on the square issue.—Washington Times.

Why Endure Summer Colds?

It isn't necessary to have a stuffed head, running nose. To cough your head off as it were. All you need do is to use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. The soothing and healing balsams open the clogged air passages and in a short time you get relief and start on the road to recovery. Your nose stops running, you cough less and you know you are getting better. Get a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left as a cough and cold insurance.

Liked The Sample.

"Bang!" went the rifles at the maneuvers. "Oo-oo!" screamed the pretty girl—a nice, decorous, surprised little scream. She stepped backward into the arms of a young man.

"Oh!" she said, blushing. "I was frightened by the rifles." I beg your pardon.

"Not at all," said the young man. "Let's go over and watch the artillery."—Current Opinion.

COUNTY COURT IN THE YEAR OF 1806

MAN ARRESTED AND TRIED FOR STEALING A BUCK DEER IS FREED.

At a court of inquiry called and held at the court house in Hartford, on Friday, the 28th day of November, 1806, for the examination of Valentine Nicholls charged with felony in stealing a Buck Deer. Samuel McGrady, Thomas Moseley, Thos. Smith, Esquires present.

The prisoner having appeared in discharge of his recognizance and it being demanded of him whether he is guilty or not guilty of the felony charged against him, saith that he is in no wise guilty, and thereupon sundry witnesses being sworn and examined and the case being maturely considered by the Court they are of opinion that the prisoner is not guilty of the charge laid against him. Thereupon it is considered that the said Nicholls is not guilty of the felony charge against him and that he be dismissed. The court dissolved.

Also, none of this day and time could possibly commit a crime of the character of which this defendant was charged and for which he was arraigned in court.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without it tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
